

Photo Caption

Winners of 'Summer Fun at Dubai Ice Rink' celebrate a week of fun on ice

Dubai, UAE; July 3, 2011: The week-long programme 'Summer Fun at Dubai Ice Rink,' was a resounding success with children from across educational institutions in Dubai as well as young visitors taking part in the event held under the patronage of His Highness Sheikh Majid bin Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum, Chairman of the Dubai Culture & Arts Authority.

Several children from various public schools and charity organisations, including Dar Al Ber, as well as eager young visitors took part in the event, which was held in line with vision of His Highness Sheikh Majid bin Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum, to strengthen the involvement of youngsters in sports activities that help them build their physical and sportive abilities. Thousands of spectators turned out to witness the event, which included free basic skating lessons for all participants, penguin races and shoot the puck competitions.

Six winners were selected daily and in all 42 winners took home attractive prizes. The first prize winners were offered the opportunity to take part in a 4-day Learn-to-Skate camp; the second prize winners were offered the one level of the Learn-to-Skate camp; and third prize winners won five complimentary public skate sessions.

Emaar Retail is further adding to the 'Summer in Dubai' campaign with a range of colourful activities across all its leisure attractions. It is running a special five-day summer camp that integrates fun with learning at Dubai Aquarium & Underwater Zoo, Dubai Ice Rink, KidZania®, SEGA Republic, Reel Cinemas and the newly introduced addition to the camp, At the Top, Burj Khalifa.

-ends-

For further information, please contact:

Kelly Home / Meral Hassan
ASDA'A Burson-Marsteller
+9714 334 4550

k.home@asdaa.com; m.hassan@asdaa.com